

U. S. Denies Plans to Slash Berlin Forces

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today denied most emphatically that it had proposed any reduction of Western troops in Berlin.

"No such proposal on troops reductions has been made," State Department spokesman Lincoln White told a hurriedly convened, midmorning news conference.

White referred specifically to a news dispatch from Bonn, written by Flora Lewis for the Washington Post.

"The Flora Lewis piece in the press this morning is wholly inaccurate," White said.

The Bonn dispatch said that the reduction was part of a new four-point plan on Berlin. It said that the United States has suggested cutting the present 12,500 troops in West Berlin to about 9,000.

The story broke on the eve of new U.S.-Soviet talks in Washington on the Berlin crisis. Differences with West Germany over proposals to be made in the talks have narrowed the area of negotiations open to Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

U.S. officials here and in Bonn were reported striving to win full approval from West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to four major negotiating proposals circulated to allied governments by Rusk last week.

Adenauer continued to oppose strenuously any offer of a concession to the Russians which in his view would move toward recognition of the Communist East German government.

Washington officials declined comment on a story published today by the Washington Post that the United States had proposed to its allies that Western troop strength in West Berlin be reduced if this would contribute to getting a settlement with the Soviet Union on Berlin.

The Berlin garrison totals some 12,500 troops of which over half are American. The Post story, by Flora Lewis under a Bonn dateline, said the reported offer would bring this down to about 3,000 each from the three occupying powers.

Such a reduction would call for withdrawal of a little more than 50 per cent of U.S. forces now in Berlin, withdrawal of a few hundred British troops and an increase in the French garrison.

The talks opening here today between Rusk and Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin were scheduled for mid-afternoon. Rusk's previous round of discussions with Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in Geneva ended three weeks ago.

The Rusk-Gromyko talks failed to break the long East-West deadlock over Berlin, but were followed by a sharp decline in East-West tensions. The Soviets stopped harassing Western aircraft in the corridors between Berlin and West Germany and joined in a new agreement to improve relations between the U.S. and Soviet military missions in West and East Germany.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, back here last week to resign his position as President Kennedy's personal representative in West Berlin, said the easing of tensions had improved the possibility of an East-West agreement.

Clay returned to the German city Sunday to wrap up his affairs. He reassured West Berliners that the United States has never been more strongly pledged to their defense. He reemphasized that if another emergency developed he would return immediately to Berlin.

Bennet Files for Old Job of Atty. Gen.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett filed today as a candidate for his old office.

Bennett, 44, signed his pledges and paid a $600 filing fee to the secretary of state just two days after Atty. Gen. Frank Holt announced he would run for a Supreme Court position.

Bennett left the attorney general's office in 1960 to make an unsuccessful campaign for governor. He had served two terms, starting in 1957.

Thorp Thomas, an assistant attorney general for nine years, announced over the weekend he also would seek the office.

Thomas worked for three attorneys general, including Bennett. Asked if he might run for governor again someday, Bennett said "If fate should dictate and the opportunity presents itself, I might do that."

Bennett also was asked if he plans to initiate more legislation designed to control activities of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He wrote more than a dozen anti-NAACP acts while he was attorney general.

"I say let sleeping dogs lie," Bennett said.

Hempstead Group Goes to Convention

Officers of the newly organized students council of Blevins and Guernsey attended the State Convention of the Arkansas Assn. of Student Councils at Marianna on April 12-14.

The three-day conference was highlighted by discussion panels, and informative speakers that carried out the theme, "Honor the Past, Serve the Future."

Making the trip from Blevins were Faustine Hill, Margaret Fulton, and Monte Harris and from Guernsey were Bill Wilson and Carolyn Powell. The group traveled to Marianna by car, sponsored by Mrs. Murrell Fisk, council sponsor and county guidance director.

Annual Easter Service Set for Stadium

The Hope Ministerial Alliance has arranged to hold the annual Easter Sunrise Service in Hammond Stadium Sunday morning at 6:30, if the weather permits.

If the weather is bad, the service will be held in the Unity Baptist Church.

Roy Anderson, who originated the Sunrise Services years ago, is in charge of the arrangements for the service again this year. Members of the Alliance will take part in the service and the Rev. Gordon Renshaw will bring the message.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Native of Hope Dies Saturday at Russellville

Graydon Davis Green, aged 34, a manufacturing engineer for Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., died Saturday at Russellville. He was born in Hope and lived in Shreveport prior to moving to Russellville three years ago. He was a member of the Methodist Church, the Louisiana Professional Engineers and Surveyors Society.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Hazel Arnold Greer, two sons, William and Robert Green of Russellville and his mother, Mrs. Bessie D. Green of Hope.

Services were held Monday morning at Russellville. Grave-side services will be held at Memorial Gardens here at 3 p.m. Monday with Herndon-Cornelius in charge.

To Close Lock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Tentative closure on Sept. 15 of the Arkansas River at the Dardanelle lock and dam to all navigation was announced Saturday by Army Engineers. The river would be closed until completion of the dam, about 1966. Protests on the move will be received by the district engineer through May 15.

Woman Will Appeal to the Pope

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A segregationist says she will appeal directly to the Pope in a local feud involving her possible excommunication from the Roman Catholic Church.

Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel closed the door on any possible audience with Mrs. B. J. Gaillot with a statement Sunday night contending he became convinced that Mrs. Gaillot intended to use the interview to gain further publicity.

The 85-year-old prelate said he considers the matter of an interview closed.

Mrs. Gaillot asked for the audience two weeks ago after receiving the archbishop's letter of censure for her activities defying his order to desegregate parochial schools next fall.

Mrs. Gaillot, who heads a New Orleans group titled "Save Our Nation, Inc.," picketed the archbishop's residence the day the school desegregation order became public.

"I will appeal directly to Rome," Mrs. Gaillot said when informed of the archbishop's statement. "They're not doing right by me."

She said she will appeal to Pope John XXIII either by letter or telegram.

Mrs. Gaillot contends her stand for segregation is based on the Bible and said she would get on her knees and beg the archbishop's forgiveness if she could be shown from the Bible that segregation is morally wrong and sinful.

Tomlinson Named by Lions Dist.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J. A. Tomlinson of Jonesboro was elected governor of District 7-A by the Lions International state convention here Sunday.

Tomlinson is athletic director at Arkansas State College in Jonesboro. Other district governors elected include M. C. Lewis Jr. of Hot Springs in District 7-K; Howard Cuten of Conway in District 7-S; and Dr. O. J. Ratcliff of North Little Rock in District 7-L.

Exemptions to Churches Held Valid by Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to consider an appeal challenging constitutionality of tax exemptions granted church properties by states.

The high tribunal also declined to rule on validity of state tax exemptions granted to veterans, veterans' organizations, Gold Star parents, cemeteries and some university professors.

Final rulings were asked in an appeal by General Finance Corp., owner of real estate in Cranston, R.I., on which the city levied a tax of $842.

The firm figured its tax would have been about $30 less if the various tax exemptions had not been granted by the state. Its attack on constitutionality of such exemptions was rejected by the Rhode Island Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court's action was announced in a brief order which said the appeal by General Finance had to be dismissed for want of a substantial federal question.

Justice Hugo Black noted he favored hearing the appeal. Justice Felix Frankfurter and the new justice, Byron R. White, took no part in consideration of the appeal.

The court's vote thus was 6-1.

Compromise Proposed by Small Nations

By TOM OCHILTREE

GENEVA (AP) — The eight non-aligned nations at the disarmament conference today proposed a compromise control system in the hope of breaking the big-power deadlock on a nuclear weapon test ban.

The plan called for a control system based on already existing national networks of observation posts, the system advocated by the Soviet Union.

It provided for on-the-spot inspections of suspected explosions by an international commission of scientists from nonaligned countries if a country under suspicion invited them in. If the country refused to issue the invitation, the only recourse for the other signers of the test ban treaty apparently would be to renounce the test ban.

Since the Soviet Union has said repeatedly it would never admit foreign inspectors to its territory, the so-called compromise appeared to be much closer to the Soviet plan than to Western proposals for automatic international inspection of suspicious explosions.

The proposal was made to the 17-nations in the name of Brazil, Burma, Ethiopia, India, Mexico, Nigeria, Sweden and the United Arab Republic.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean, British Minister of State Joseph Godber and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin all said they would refer the proposal to their governments.

Dean and Godber sought to determine what sanctions would come into force if a country prevented the commission from inspecting at the site of a suspicious explosion. Western sources indicated the United States and Britain felt this section of the proposal was vague.

Settlement of Dispute Okayed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court affirmed today the manner in which Garland Chancery Court settled a monetary dispute between Mrs. Bonnie Connelly and attorneys who represented her.

The dispute arose in a case in which Mrs. Connelly was eventually convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to three years in prison. Mrs. Connelly was convicted of slaying her husband, but Arkansas to avoid confinement and is now being held in Fredericksburg, Va. pending extradition hearings.

In other opinions today the Supreme Court upheld a 1961 act giving the state the power to regulate companies doing business in pre-paid funeral expenses.

It reversed a Phillips Circuit Court case in which Ed Garvill was awarded a $645 judgment for damages to Garvill's car and reversed and remanded to Washington Circuit Court a case in which Bon Ton Cleaners of Springfield was awarded $230.60 judgment for fire damage to clothing at the cleaning plant.

Health Key to 5th Term Bid by Faubus; Melton Reconsiders

Encouraging Calls Could Change Him

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Marvin Melton may get back into the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Melton himself wouldn't say so today but that was the way it had begun to look.

The Jonesboro farmer business man announced Friday he was withdrawing as a possible candidate unless he got more popular and financial support.

Today Melton sources said he had received over 200 phone calls in addition to letters and postcards over the weekend encouraging him to run for governor.

"He feels a lot better about the whole thing," a close associate of his said today.

Meantime, Gov. Orval Faubus was in New Orleans for a physical checkup. Sources close to him indicated Faubus might seek a fifth term after all if his medical examination turns out all right. He had said over a statewide television-radio network March 31 that he was retiring from politics for this year at least.

April Chill Is Breaking Records

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
An April chill broke records today in the southeastern quarter of the nation.

Nashville, Tenn., had 29; Augusta, Ga., 32; Little Rock, Ark., 33; and Evansville, Ind., 28—all lows for April 16.

Savannah, Ga., had 32, the lowest ever recorded there at this stage of spring.

But the northern sections of the Midwest were even chillier.

Among the lows were 14 above zero in Stevens Point, Wis., and Marquette, Mich.; and 16 in Park Falls and Lone Rock, Wis.

Two and a half inches of snow fell Sunday on the Black Mountain range 30 miles northeast of Asheville, N.C. The low temperature there was 10 above zero.

The mercury hit 32 degrees in Memphis this morning, tying the lowest temperature ever recorded so late in the spring season.

Snow flurries added another touch of winter across areas in the upper Ohio Valley and in the Atlantic Coast states from extreme western Virginia northeastward into Maine. A two-inch snowfall hit Elkins, W.Va. Light rain sprinkled southeastern New England.

Among new speakers this year are Dr. Sylvester Petro, professor of labor law at New York university; Dr. Anthony Bouscaren, professor of political science at Le Moyne College; Elston Leonard, president of Polovox Productions and Mrs. Alfred P. Lippman Jr. of Benton, a housewife who makes speeches against communism.

Rights Party Has a New Chairman

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A vacancy created by the resignation of Pat R. Crawford of Little Rock, chairman of the Arkansas States Rights party, was filled Saturday by the appointment of Mrs. E. L. Bishop.

Mrs. Bishop, national vice president of the party, said her appointment to Crawford's post was made by Ned Dupes of Knoxville, Tenn., national chairman.

Crawford resigned Friday night, saying he had lacked support.

Mrs. Bishop, of Little Rock, said a state convention of the party will be held some time in May to kick off its 1962 campaign. She said candidates will be nominated for governor, U.S. Senator, the four congressional seats and state and county offices.

Indicates He May Change His Mind

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Orval Faubus, the controversial governor of Arkansas, indicates he may change his mind about not seeking a record fifth term after he completes a physical examination in New Orleans.

Faubus, the only man ever to serve four terms as governor in Arkansas, checked into the Brent House on the grounds of famed Ochsner Foundation Hospital and Clinic last night.

"I'll be here until they've finished, and I don't know how long that will be," Faubus said in a telephone interview. "I'm very tired and have no idea what might be wrong."

Several weeks ago he announced he would not seek a fifth term, citing health reasons. He predicted many people would jump into the race in the upcoming Democratic primary but since then he has joked that he might have to run again after all because of the reluctance of others to enter the race.

"I'll have no comment about that (politics) until I'm through here," said Faubus.

"No, I won't comment about that either," he said when asked about multimillionaire Winthrop Rockefeller's decision Saturday night not to seek the Republican nomination for governor in Arkansas.

Faubus appointed Rockefeller—brother of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller—to the chairmanship of the Arkansas Industrial Development Corp. several years ago. Rockefeller moved to Arkansas after his much-publicized divorce from his wife "Bobo" and has become one of the state's leading civic and philanthropic figures.

OAS Battles Police, One Is Killed

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
ALGERS (AP) — Police and the Secret Army Organization (OAS) battled today in Oran, where underground terrorists in a campaign of growing boldness tried to seize a police camp and its armored cars.

First reports said a policeman was killed and 10 other persons were wounded.

In Algiers, secret army commandos fired on Muslims in the Bab el Oued quarter, killing one and wounding two.

It was in an Algiers suburb that a Muslim mob lynched two Europeans Sunday in the first act of retaliation against the secret army since the March 19 cease-fire ending the long Algerian nationalist rebellion.

The Algerian Nationalist regime from its base in Tunis warned the French Sunday to take stronger measures against the secret army, which is trying to wreck the cease-fire and keep Algeria French.

It perhaps was significant that, since the warning the first action came in Oran, second largest city in Algiers and a secret army stronghold in western Algeria.

The fighting started when a secret army unit tried to take over the police installation at Gambetta, a suburb, and capture the armored cars stationed there, authorities said. Police put up stiff resistance, scattering the secret army agents.

The firing raged from street to street as the casualties mounted. The lynching of two Europeans Continued on Page Two

the Arkansas Labor Safety Conference.
Later at the Oschner Foundation Hospital at New Orleans, said he wouldn't have anything to say about his political future until the physical examination was completed.

"I'll be here until they've finished," he told a newsman. "And I don't know how long that will be."

All last week speculation was high that Rockefeller would run but Rockefeller kept his own counsel — and his announcement Saturday night came as a surprise to many in both Democratic and Republican camps.

When the Rockefeller speculation was running high, Faubus said he felt Rockefeller would be a man to be reckoned with. He said he thought some Democratic candidates might have trouble with him but that he (Faubus) had no political fear of Rockefeller.

This was interpreted as meaning Faubus might reconsider running for a fifth term to strengthen the Democratic campaign if Rockefeller ran.

Faubus had only one comment
Saturday night on the Rockefeller speech. He said Rockefeller "talked about people living in fear," and added, "I don't know of any fear in Arkansas unless it is the fear of intervention by outsiders over majority rule of Arkansas citizens."

Rockefeller had said there was no such thing as a secret ballot in Arkansas and that he had been told it would be easy to swing at least 50,000 votes in the state. He said under the Democratic party, "the theme of voting in our state is the theme of fear."

One other candidate dropped out of the gubernatorial race Saturday. Atty. Gen. Frank Holt said he would run for a Supreme Court seat.

Marvin Melton of Jonesboro, then withdrew, said he has gained support since his decision Friday not to run. Melton would not confirm feelings of associates that he might re-enter the race.

Fishermen Arrested Off of Alaska
KODIAK, Alaska (AP) — The captains of two Japanese fishing boats have been arrested on charges of poaching in the latest flareup in years of dissension over fishing by the Japanese in waters claimed by Alaska.

Alaska officials, headed by Capt. E. L. Mayfield of the state police, boarded the 65-foot herring catcher Ohtori Maru No. 5 Saturday night at the mouth of Uganik Bay in Shelikof Strait.

The arrested Captain Higashima Tadao on charges of fishing commercially without a license and having registered his gear or boat.

The Ohtori Maru was escorted to Kodiak by the State Fish and Game Department vessel Teal and held under $25,000 bond.

The Ohtori Maru is one of five catcher boats which Alaska officials say have been taking herring in Shelikof Strait for about two weeks. They are accompanied by a 5,000-ton mother ship, the Banshu Maru, with 123 persons aboard.

Officers also arrested the captain of the Banshu Maru, Mongo M. Hanasaki, but did not seize his ship. Hanasaki was charged with fishing commercially without having notified the state.

Superior Court Judge Edward W. Davis flew here from Anchorage Sunday to arraign Tadao and Hanasaki. He released them to their vessels on their promise to return for a hearing.

In Tokyo, a spokesman for the Taiyo Fisheries Co., which owns the vessels, said, "We have ordered the fleet to operate at least five miles off the coast of the United States, two miles outside the accepted territorial water boundary. We are confident no violation is involved."

Alleged poaching by Japanese fishermen has been a hot issue in Alaska for at least 25 years.
In 1938, the Alaskan delegate in Congress, Anthony Dimond, even suggested that the United States bomb Japanese fishing boats in Alaska waters.

Shelikof Strait, varying in width from 30 to 21 miles, lies between Kodiak Island and the Alaska Peninsula.

Gov. William A. Egan of Alaska said the strait "traditionally has been an inland body of water."

Negro Area Burns in El Dorado

ELDORADO, Ark. (AP) — Four business buildings and eight residential dwellings, all frame structures, were destroyed by fire which swept a block in a Negro area today. No one was injured.

Firemen from the El Dorado fire department, from two oil companies and a rescue unit from the Civil Defense fought the fire for two and one-half hours before bringing it under control.

About 40 firemen answered the alarm. The fire was reported shortly before 2 a.m.

Three of the business buildings and six of the houses were owned by Pierce Matheny, an El Dorado attorney. The rest of the property was owned by Bernard V. Wilkerson of New York.

One of the buildings, a two story rooming house, was vacant.
Two of the other buildings were two-stories. All were reported destroyed.

Firemen made no immediate estimate of the loss from the fire.
Its cause was not determined.

House Plans Recess at Easter

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today begins four days of work on its legislative program in advance of a 10-day Easter recess.

The Senate, already enjoying its annual holiday slowdown, considers a catch-all money bill today, the only business in the immediate offing. It then probably will quit until Thursday when it will recess again for a long Easter weekend.

House leaders already have announced their intention of taking a formal holiday starting Friday and ending on April 30.

They have outlined a busy schedule for the first four days of the week, starting with consideration today of a $1.5-billion military construction authorization bill and several dozen noncon-troversial measures.

The biggest money bill of the session, a $47.8-billion measure to finance the Defense Department for the 1963 fiscal year, comes before the House Tuesday. Leaders hope to have it on its way to the Senate late Wednesday.

Committee activity in both branches will be lively until Thursday and then will taper off.
Business will perk up after the extended holiday before final adjournment.

House leaders have been talking of winding up business by July and in the Senate hope has been expressed for adjournment by Labor Day. Both targets probably will go by the boards if the Senate Finance Committee clears three bills at the top of President Kennedy's list — tax revision, trade expansion and health care for the aged under Social Security.

Those and other measures are now caught in a committee logjam not fully of its own creation.

Many of the proposals involve the taxing power and all such legislation must originate in the House.

The committee now is plowing through five weeks of public hearings on the bulky tax revision bill.
These may end in early May, but Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., says it may take four more weeks before a vote is in. Public hearings on the trade bill probably won't begin until after Independence Day and may run longer than those on the tax bill.

Byrd said the crash is the worst he has seen in his 29 years in the Senate.

There has been no floor action in either the Senate or House on the medical care and trade measures. Nor has there been any on foreign aid, a new agriculture program and civil rights.

According to the 1960 U. S. census, inmates of institutions totaled 1,897,106 persons.

Another in Race for Secy. of State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Carroll Durham of Wynne filed today as a Democratic candidate for secretary of state.

Durham, a 51-year-old funeral home operator, is the third candidate for the position.

State Rep. Milton Willis of Van Buren and Kelly Bryant of Hope already have filed.

Durham signed party and corrupt practices pledges in the secretary of state's office today. He said he would pay the $500 filing fee next week with 100 checks for $5 each, contributed by Cross County supporters.

This will be Durham's first attempt at a statewide office. He once campaigned unsuccessfully for state senator in his district.

The governor's race took another unexpected twist Saturday. Republican National Committeeman Winthrop Rockefeller removed himself as a possible candidate.
He had been mentioned promi-nently as a possibility since pary week ago had beat the drums for his candidacy.

Rockefeller said he had no
"personal political ambitions" and he felt he could do more for the party as a worker.

Rockefeller cleared up his po-vision Saturday night. Odell Dorsey, a North Little Rock businessman and a political unknown, outlined the platform on which he was going to run for governor on the Democratic ticket in a later television program Saturday night.

"If the price of electricity is so low, WHY HAS OUR BILL GONE UP?"

If your electric bills are higher, the main reason is that you're using more electricity for more things.

And because the price of electricity is so low, you're using much more of it... for wonderful new appliances to help you with the housework, entertain you, and make all your chores easier.

When you think how much your electric service does for so little, you'll probably agree it's just about the best bargain you can get today.

Project 20 Developed Simple Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Producers of NBC's "Project 20" programs have developed a simple, dramatic and marvellously impressive technique for the re-telling of a great and familiar story.

In Sunday night's "He Is Risen," the story of the Crucifixion, the narration was appropriately in the soaring prose style of the King James version of the Bible. The visual portion consisted of color film of great religious paintings by artists of the Middle Ages and Renaissance.

The cameras, sometimes in closeups of faces, sometimes traveling slowly over a broad canvas, moved the story inexorably from the return of Lazarus from the grave to the triumph of the Resurrection.

Seen through the eyes of the masters—Rembrandt, Titian, E. Greco, Van Dyck, Rubens, to mention only a few—the Easter story had impact and power beyond a mere dramatization by actors. Not the least fascinating aspect of the program was the varied ways in which the painters depicted Jesus—so many different faces—and yet all with the same sweet, spiritual quality.

To inject one critical note about a thoroughly praiseworthy undertaking: it did seem graceless of "Project 20" not to include even small credit lines identifying the old masters or a nod to Matthew, Mark Luke and John amid all the billboarding of producer, director, narrator and a long list of museums housing the unidentified art works.

"Action in New Orleans," was that rare television commodity, an original comedy, and it turned up on NBC's "Show of the Week" Sunday night.

This was a promising and jaunty little tale of a master con man, the "Alabama Wonder," and his attempts to swindle a lone, some and rich Ohio widow out of $70,000.

The action began entertainingly enough, with Bob Cummings playing the confidence man selling up an elaborate plot to relieve the widow (Audrey Meadows) of her fortune by means of a phony stock deal.

But about half way through, the plot began to run out of gas. It was almost as if the author was trying to figure out some way—any way—to wind things up.

Bob Cummings played the con man too briskly and with too much finger-snapping to be convincing and Audrey Meadows was much too hard-headed and sharp-tongued to be a gullible widow.

Colony Group Names Officers

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — J. B. Waddington of Little Rock was chosen president of the Associations for Retarded Children Sunday at the conclusion of a two-day meeting here.

Other officers are W. R. Smith of Little Rock, vice president; Mrs. J. W. Graney of Magnolia, secretary; and Milton Howell of Russellville, treasurer.

David Ray, director of the Arkansas Children's Colony at Conway told the group Sunday the colony hopes to begin a research program on mental retardation.

On the same subject, Garland Rep. Ray Smith said Arkansas' late entry into the research field should enable it to benefit from mistakes made by other states.

State Education Commissioner Arch Ford said rural areas are excluded from the retardation program while the state appropriation of $270,000 for special education of retarded children barely scratches the surface of the needs.

Alford to Speak

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., is among the speakers scheduled to address the 4,000 delegates to the 71st Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution here next week. The delegates will meet without one well-known member, Mrs. Ernest Ives, sister of U.N. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson, who resigned over policies of the organization.

FIRST POULTRY PRINCESS ENTRY — Miss Sandra Craig of Little Rock is the first to sign up for the 3rd annual Arkansas Poultry Princess Contest, the winner of which will represent Arkansas in the Miss Universe Pageant in Miami Beach, Fla., this summer. Taking the

How to Help Your Husband

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: How can a wife truly help her husband? I am asking you this question now but actually it started with a question my husband had to ask himself 14 years ago when he was faced with choosing a wife.

Should he marry the rich girl or the poor one? He decided and married the poor girl—me. Together we built a warm and devoted household which, in time, included three children.

My husband is, through hard work and an alert mind, a successful business man. Our love for each other and for our children is very strong. You would think he must be a contented and fortunate individual but within this man is a powerful drive for recognition.

Not in any selfish way, but because of his intelligence and deep feeling for other people he must achieve more than material wealth. After the war he started to write; first going to college at night to brush up on his English and to study journalism. Subsequently he wrote a short story with a very big idea.

He has sent it to many magazines and publishing houses. On each rejection slip the editors added a personal note of praise. Several weeks ago, a woman whose first book has recently been published, read the story. She said the story would make a moving novel, but this would involve work and time. My husband replied he could not give the time. (Within 10 years his mother and mine have become dependent upon him.) When I read this my heart almost stopped beating, but a sob broke loose from deep inside me and from my mind came the question I asked at the beginning of this letter: how can a wife truly help her husband? — One Who Loves Her Husband.

Dear One: You and your husband are too tense about this whole situation. Let go! If he wants to write, he will write, no matter what. When the story doesn't flow easily, the conscious mind thinks up all sorts of alibis to avoid facing the truth. Marriage, financial responsibilities, business—nothing could keep him from pouring that novel out, if he knew what it was he wanted to say. My former husband, the late John Erskine, wrote "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" at night, after long hours of teaching. The writing refreshed, instead of tired him, because he had thought the story out first in his mind. Tell your husband to let his subconscious work on it and go on himself to another story.

I believe you could best help your husband by encouraging him to talk out his stories with you, and since your letter to me reveals a gift for expression, perhaps collaborate with him. Show your love by believing in him. Blind adoration is not enough. Be intelligent in your thinking. Keep your sense of humor and spirit of play. Make him realize that there is joy in living, and this goes for writing too!

Dear Helen: Though only 17, I prefer dating older men. Boys my age bore me. They are infantile! My family doesn't agree. I resent their domination. As a result we are in constant conflict. When, if ever, will I be free to make my own decisions in life? — Independence.

Dear Independence: Yours is the lament of teen-agers, at least as far as freedom goes. Have patience, in a few short years, whether you like it or not, you will really be on your own. Meanwhile, be thankful that your parents care enough to protect you. And don't worry about your interest in older men. Most adolescent girls pass through this phase.

Out of loyalty to your father—who until recently, has been the only man on your horizon, you subconsciously seek a substitute.

Violent Death Toll Reaches 14

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Little Rock man died in a one-car collision and a Fort Smith Negro burned to death Sunday, bringing to 14 the number of persons dying violently in Arkansas during the week ended last midnight.

State Police said Beauford Blevins, 26, was fatally injured when his car went out of control on state Highway 10 about 4 miles west of Little Rock, traveled 231 feet and came to rest upside down in a creek.

A passenger in Blevins' car, James Ward, 33, also of Little Rock, was critically injured.

At Fort Smith, Ivory (Jack) Perry, 51, died in a fire apparently caused by smoking in bed. Coroner B. G. Hendrix said Perry's death was an accident. The fire, which partially burned the house, was at the home of Perry's sister, Mrs. Frances McClendon.

Mrs. Herbert Joyner, a non-swimmer, drowned in a farm lake Saturday near her home in the Madison Junction community near Forrest City. Her son and brother saw the accident from a boat, officers said, but were unable to reach her.

A head-on collision at an intersection in Texarkana took the life of Ark.

Alford called it "an all inclusive program of medical care for our aged people who find themselves pressed for funds."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinking) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made

Saturday night of Mrs. Minnie C. Earhart, 45, of Texarkana. Police said Mrs. Earhart was a passenger in a car driven by her 20-year-old daughter, Mardell, which rammed head-on into a car driven by Jesse Johnson.

Mrs. Earhart was dead on arrival at a Texarkana hospital.

During the week, nine persons died in traffic accidents, two were killed in an industrial accident, one died from drowning, one from burns and one was crushed by a tractor.

Bill Linked to Social Medicine

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Governatorial candidate Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., linked the King-Alfordson Bill pending before Congress with socialized medicine in a talk here Sunday.

Addressing the Arkansas Medical Assistants Society, Alford said "Social Security medicine for the aged not only is socialism in action, but will add to the (national) debt."

The bill, which is backed by the Kennedy Administration, would raise the Social Security tax rate one-fourth of one per-cent to help foot the cost of medical care for the aged.

Alford said he prefers the Kerr-Mills program which went into effect in October, 1960, and is subscribed to by over half the states.

The Kerr-Mills program was co-authored by Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-

Would Curb Power of Labor Bosses

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., called Sunday for public backing of his bill to apply anti-trust provisions of the Sherman and Clayton acts to transportation unions.

McClellan said the legislation is urgently needed to curb the "lethal and unrestricted" power of such union leaders as James Hoffa and Harry Bridges.

Hoffa is president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. Bridges heads the West Coast International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union.

McClellan spoke in an interview on the Manion Radio Forum.

He said that if unchecked, the union leaders' powers and "those they seek to achieve" would supersede even the powers of the government.

Noting that Communists have described non-Communist countries' transportation industries as "the vital artery of the bourgeoisie in peace and war," the Arkansas lawmaker added:

"And the communists know... that a complete shutdown of any major part of transportation, even in one metropolitan community, can immediately become a public disaster."

McClellan said business, the states and the nation's president do not have the power represented in the transportation unions.

But Hoffa and Bridges have it, he added, "and they arrogantly and defiantly boast about it."

McClellan said he believed his proposed legislation may provide a "decisive" test of the nation's courage and determination "to resist intimidation, coercion and exploitation."

Judge to Retire

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Judge Audrey Strait of the 5th Judicial District announced Saturday he would retire after 24 years service and Chancellor Wiley W. Bean of Clarksville filed the same day for the post. Bean, 69, is now filling the unexpired term of George O. Patterson as chancellor of the 3rd district and is ineligible to succeed himself.

Payment of the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting was prescribed by a Constitutional amendment passed in 1892, but it was declared inoperative by the Arkansas Supreme Court in 1904 and was adopted again in 1908.

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF SALE OF HEMPSTEAD COUNTY, ARKANSAS GENERAL OBLIGATION INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT BONDS BEING ISSUED UNDER AMENDMENT NO. 49 TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS.

Pursuant to Order of the Hempstead County Court, notice is hereby given that Hempstead County will sell to the highest bidder its proposed issue of $245,000 Hempstead County General Obligation Industrial Development Bonds, being issued under Amendment No. 49 to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, dated April 1, 1962, with interest at the rate of 3.399% per annum, payable semi-annually on April 1 and October 1 of each year, commencing October 1, 1962, and with the bonds to mature serially on April 1 of each year as follows:

YEAR	AMOUNT
1965	$10,000
1966	12,000
1967	13,000
1968	14,000
1969	15,000
1970	16,000
1971	17,000
1972	18,000
1973	19,000
1974	20,000
1975	21,000
1976	22,000
1977	23,000

The proceeds of the bonds will be used for the purpose of financing a portion of the cost of securing and developing industry within Hempstead County, Arkansas. The particular industrial project will consist of the acquisition of lands, the construction of an egg processing plant and facilities, the construction of housing facilities for laying hens, and the purchase and installation of necessary equipment and machinery. The cost of the project not covered by the bond issue will be paid by the industry. The portion of the project financed by the bond issue will be owned by the County and leased to Delight Egg Farms, Inc., for lease rentals at least sufficient to pay the principal of interest on and paying agent's fees in connection with the bonds as the same become due and payable.

There will be levied a continuing annual tax of two (2) mills on the assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property in the County, which said levy will continue until the principal of interest on and paying agent's fees in connection with the bonds have been fully paid and discharged; provided, however, provision will be made for the suspension of the collection of the tax so long as project revenues are sufficient to pay the principal of interest on and paying agent's fees in connection with the bonds as the same become due and payable, and maintain the reserve fund of $22,000.

The assessed valuation of Hempstead County, according to the 1961 assessment, latest assessment of record, is $13,680,720. The purchaser may name the bank of payment and shall have the right to convert the bonds to an issue bearing a lower rate or rates of interest with any conversion to be upon such terms that the County receive no less and pay no more than it would receive and pay if the bonds were not converted. Any conversion will be subject to the approval of the Bank of Payment and the County Court.

Expenses of the issue, including the printing and trusteeing of the bonds and the fee of McHaffey, Smith & Williams, Bond Counsel of Little Rock, Arkansas, upon whose approving opinion the bonds will be issued, will be paid by the County's fiscal agent, Dabbs Sullivan Company, Little Rock, Arkansas.

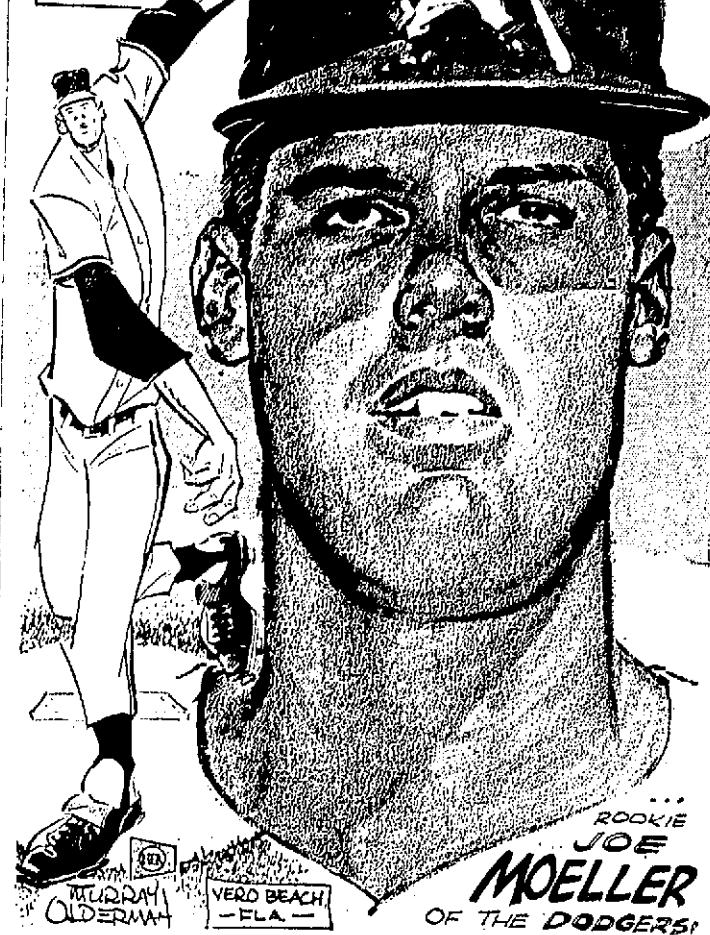

The bonds will be callable for payment prior to maturity in inverse numerical order at par and accrued interest, from funds from any source on interest paying date. It will be provided that surplus tax revenues and surplus project revenues over and above the amount necessary to pay the principal of interest on and paying agent's fees in connection with the bonds as the same become due and payable, and to establish and maintain a reserve for contingencies in the amount of $22,000, must be used from time to time on each interest paying date for the redemption of bonds prior to maturity as soon as funds are available therefor.

No contingent provisions may be included in any bid and no bid of less than par and accrued interest will be entertained.

The bonds will be sold upon auction bids, the sale to be held at 1 o'clock p. m., on the 23rd day of April, 1962 at the office of the County Judge in the Hempstead County Courthouse, Hope, Arkansas. Each bidder will be required to deposit a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $4,900 on a bank that is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation payable to the County, to be retained as liquidated damages, in the event the bidder is awarded the sale of the bonds but fails to complete the purchase. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned. Interest will not be paid on good faith checks. The County reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

For further information address the undersigned. GIVEN This 2nd day of April, 1962.

Coaches See Porkers in a Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — An early version of the 1962-63 Razorback team was previewed here Saturday for mentors attending the University of Arkansas' two-day coaching clinic.

Coach Frank Broyles scrimmaged the red and white teams before the coaches for 60 minutes, giving them the ball on the 20-yard-line and letting the battle rage.

The Reds called in the kicking ability of Tommy McNelly to score a 16-14 victory at the end of the play. McNelly booted a field goal from the 10 on the final down.

Dubbed as standouts in the scrimmage were fullbacks Kenny Dean and Charles Daniel and Wingback Gary Robinson.

Over 200 coaches from the Arkansas and surrounding states attended the clinic.

Sikes Winner at Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — R. H. Sikes won medalist honors with a two-under-par 67 here Saturday in the 5-1 defeat of Texas Christian University by the University of Arkansas golf team.

Results: R. H. Sikes (Ark.) defeated Jack Montgomery one and two; Mike Walling (TCU) beat Dick Murphy one up; Gary Gross (Ark.) downed Gale Cunningham two and one; Tom Fuqua (Ark.) beat Leland Phillips two up; Sikes and Murphy defeated Montgomery and Walling one up and Gross and Fuqua downed Cunningham and Phillips two up.

Bledsoe Named by Denver

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Troy Bledsoe, an assistant basketball coach at the University of Denver and a native of North Little Rock, Ark., has been named head basketball coach of the school.

Bledsoe, 36, whose freshman team compiled an 11-3 record during the past season, succeeds Hoyt Brawner who became athletic director.

Milwaukee's Heavy Hitters Come Alive

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati's Frank Robinson and Milwaukee's Henry Aaron, a pair of slumbering giants, awoke with a roar Sunday and as a result the Reds and Braves were breathing a little easier today.

The Braves won their first game of the year, beating the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-3 and the Reds snapped a five-game losing streak, inflicting the first defeat upon the San Francisco Giants, 4-3. Bob Purkey, only Cincinnati pitcher to win so far, registered his second triumph.

In the only other National League game, Pittsburgh defeated New York 7-2. Rain forced the postponement of the second game of the scheduled Pirates-Mets doubleheader.

Rain also wiped out the scheduled doubleheader between Houston and the Phillies in Philadelphia. Cold weather was responsible for calling off the single contest scheduled between St. Louis and the Cubs in Chicago.

Los Angeles' Angels took over first place in the American League, defeating Minnesota 6-3, Chicago's White Sox whipped Kansas City 8-3 and Baltimore split a doubleheader with Boston. The Orioles won the first game 5-1 and the Red Sox too the second 5-4.

Through the first six games, opposing pitchers had held Robinson, the National League's Most Valuable Player last year, to four hits in 24 times at bat and no runs batted in. The Reds lost five of the first six. Robby drove in his first run and scored another in the Reds' one-run triumph over the Giants.

Aaron's plight was even worse than that of Robinson. Henry had been held to one hit in 18 tries after five games. The Braves lost all five. He smashed three hits, one a home run, Sunday and drove in two runs to lead the Braves' 10-hit attack against loser Sandy Koufax and Pete Richert. Bob Hendley, a southpaw, went the route for Milwaukee, yielding five hits and striking out eight.

Tech Sweeps a Doubleheader

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Tech broke a 3-3 tie in the ninth inning of the nightcap here Saturday to sweep both games of an Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference baseball doubleheader from Arkansas A&M, 2-1, 4-3.

In the bottom of the ninth, Robert Burnett doubled, stole third, then scored on a bunt by Larry Burnett.

Wilford Rose and Doug McKinney were winning pitchers. Losers were Larry Burnett and Carl Blythe.

ASTRONAUT'S-EYE VIEW FROM A CHERRY PICKER

Familiar sight at Cape Canaveral for the Mercury-Redstone launchings of Gus Grissom and Alan Shepard was the "cherry picker," left. It was positioned beside the 83-foot missile until two minutes before blast-off as an emergency escape tower for the astronaut. For John Glenn's orbital flight, a bigger model was made (but not used) to accommodate the taller Atlas rocket. What the view is like from the top of that cherry picker is shown in top photograph. The structure extends six feet farther than the old model.

Benton Wins Ouachita College Meet

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — Taking advantage of the skills of Robert Homan, Benton garnered 100½ points to win the first division of the 10th Annual Ouachita Relays here Saturday.

Homan scored 19 points, including first places in the broad jump and 100-yard dash.

North Little Rock took second place in the division with 59½. Malvern scored 36 2-3; El Dorado, 27; Arkansas High of Texarkana, 23; Pine Bluff 21 1-3; Camden Fairview 17 and Mablevale, 5.

In Division Two, Searcy won with 53 points, followed by Eudora with 35½; Stamps, 33; Nashville, 25 1-3; Fordyce, 22; DeWitt 20 5-6; Mineral Springs, 20; McCrory, 19; Murfreesboro, 13; White Hall, 9; Prescott, 8; McGehee, 7; Harding Academy, 7; Hughes, 6 1-3; Arkadelphia, 6; DeQueen, 6; Dierks, 6 and Star City, 3.

Homan posted a 21:86 effort to break the meet record of 22:5 in the 220-yard dash and tied the state and meet record of 9.9 seconds in the 100-yard dash.

Celtics Must Win to Stay in Running

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Cautious Los Angeles casts a wary eye on history and the Boston Celtics to-night when the Lakers can wrap up the National Basketball Association playoff crown.

In an effort to save its trembling dynasty, Boston hints it will send defensive genius Bill Russell to "play the great Elgin Baylor, whose record 61 points Saturday night led Los Angeles to the championship threshold.

The Lakers outscored Boston 33-22 in the final period and pulled ahead 3-2 in the best-of-seven series with a 126-121 triumph.

"We had this same situation year ago in the semifinals against St. Louis," Los Angeles coach Fred Schaus warned. "We led the series 3 to 2 going home, then dropped the next two and were eliminated."

Baylor's 61 points bettered the previous playoff final mark of 50 set by Bob Pettit against Boston four years ago.

For the tired Celtics, there is no tomorrow in their quest for an unprecedented fourth straight crown.

Celtics coach Red Auerbach says he thought about playing 6-foot-10 center Russell on 6-5 forward Baylor Saturday night, then didn't. He clearly intimated the strategy would be part of to-night's last ditch effort.

Angels Surprise by Gaining Top Spot in League

By BOB GREEN Associated Press Sports Writer

Sophomore jinx? Boston's Don Schwall isn't having any, thank you, though the figures show otherwise.

"Nonsense," the 1961 American League Rookie of the Year shrugged after his second straight loss Sunday, 5-1 to the Orioles in the first game of a doubleheader at Baltimore. The Red Sox won the second 5-4.

"I don't believe in any jinx," the tall right-hander said. "I know that sometimes you get more breaks than others. Over a full season, they usually even up for everyone."

He hasn't had much help so far this season. Schwall, who had a 15-7 record with the sixth-place Red Sox last season, was beaten 4-0 in the opener this year. Army, Pvt. Steve Barber handcuffed Boston Sunday.

Los Angeles' surprising Angels gained sole control of the top spot at the end of the first week's play, taking the Twins 6-3 at Minnesota. Chicago blasted the A's 8-3 at Kansas City. New York at Detroit was postponed by cold weather, and the Washington at Cleveland doubleheader was postponed because of snow.

In the National League, Milwaukee won its first game of the year, beating the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-3. Cincinnati snapped a five-game losing string and handed San Francisco its first loss, 4-3. Pittsburgh defeated New York 7-2. Rain forced postponement of the second game of the scheduled Pirates-Mets doubleheader, and also washed out the Houston at Philadelphia doubleheader. St. Louis at Chicago was called off because of cold weather.

Only rampaging rookie Rich Rollins bothered Los Angeles' Eli Grba. Rollins, who is hitting .533, accounted for all the Twins runs with a three-run homer, his third, in the ninth. Bulky Steve Bilko crashed two homers and Leon Wagner one for the Angels as they took a half-game lead atop the standings. Grba allowed nine hits, but was supported by four double plays.

Schwall allowed only three hits and struck out eight in seven innings, but was plagued with lack of control, walking seven.

Bluth Rolls Record 1051 in 4 Games

DES MOINES, Iowa. (AP) — Ray Bluth of St. Louis fired a record 1051 total for four games including a 300 opening score, Sunday night in his first match of the American Bowling Congress Masters Tournament finals.

Bluth, the 1959 champion, came back with a 279 score in his second game, then added 227 and 245 to defeat Pte Trebybig, Houston, who rolled 777.

Bluth's 300 game, his sixth in sanctioned competition and first in a tournament, was the first in a Masters final. Al (Bud) Horn of Los Angeles rolled the first perfect game in a Masters last year. His came in qualifying play.

The previous four-game record for a singles tournament was 1026 by Ed Kawolice, Chicago, in 1946 in the Petersen Classic. Bob Nickel, Toledo, held the old four-game record of 1039 for match competition. He shot it Oct. 28, 1956.

Arkansas crop production in 1961 has been estimated to be one fifth above the 10 year average.
